

Year 1 Summer Term
Endangered

	Literacy	Maths	Context (Incl Trips/Visitors)
Summer 1	Writing skills: - 'Because' to link 2 simple sentences Report writing - Factfile on Mary Anning Persuasion Leaflet - Visit Dan yr Ogof Caves	Mass and Volume - Weighing the mass of objects Multiplication and Division - Recognising equal and not equal groups - Using arrays - Repeated addition - Multiplication reasoning Money - Recognising and sorting coins - Making different amounts using coins - Giving change	Expressive Arts Week - Factcard about an endangered animal - Watercolour silhouette paintings of animals - Making rainmakers Observational drawings of a fossil using charcoal Making fossils using salt dough Sorting dinosaurs by their type of food Comparing human and dinosaur skeletons Dan yr Ogof Caves and Dinosaur Park visit
Summer 2	Hook/Class Text: The Little Green Dinosaur Discussion - Information leaflet about a dinosaur Narrative: - Talk 4 Writing - Retell The Little green dinosaur	Fractions - Recognising halves - Finding halves of objects - Finding halves of quantities Algebra - Missing numbers in a number sentence Place Value - One more and one less	School of Sanctuary - Letter of welcome to Beegu at Howardian - Thank you card to Oasis for the help they give refugees in Cardiff. Connecting important animals to different religions Julian is a mermaid. What makes you unique?